ALL-THE GRAND JURY, AFTER INSTRUCTIONS, COMMENCES ITS WORK UPON THE CRONIN CASE. CHICAGO, June 12 .- Sheriff Watson said last evening in reference to the special grand jury that is to be impaneled to-day: "It will consist of first-class business men in whose judgment and discretion the public will have implicit confidence," "Will there be any Irishmen on the list?"

"No. But I do not mean this as a reflection on Irishman, but to avoid all cause for complaint on the part of any faction that may Assistant States Attorney Neeley said that the grand jury had been summoned in order that there might be no delay between the ending of the coroner's inquest and the commencement of the grand jury proceedings in the case. THE RIGHT MEN CAPTURED. Luke Dillon said last night, referring to the verdict of the coroner's jury: "This is a splendid day's work. I am as confident as I am alive that with Sullivan and Maroney in the net now we have the right men. This crime will be fully exposed. The plot will be unraveled and the guilty brought to punishment." States Attorney Longnecker said last night, referring to the special grand jury: "It will be impaneled at 10 o'clock, and we will proceed immediately to place additional evidence against the men under arrest before the jury; also some of the evidence already published. It terfere pending the grand jury investigation. We have much evidence not yet published, and I am confident that some of our Clan-na-Gael witnesses will be more disposed to tell all they know before a grand jury than they have been before the coroner's jury and two score of re-

IMPORTANCE OF THE NEW YORK ARRESTS. The Herald this morning says that Luke Dillon is so positive that the men arrested in New York yesterday, Maroney and McDonald, were engaged in the butchery of Dr. Cronin-that he advised John Cronin, the dead man's brother, to swear out warrants against them on the charge of murder. It is known positively that Maroney was in Chicago on May 3, for a man who knows him met him on the street, He was also in the city on April 17, when he registered at McCoy's house as W. G. Melville. Luke Dillon has cut the signature out of the register to compare it with the handwriting of Frank Williams, who rented the Carlson cottage, but owing to a press of other business yesterday he could not find time to get the letter from Chief Hubbard.

Luke Dillon says that A SENSATIONAL CHAPTER RELATIVE TO MARONEY could be written, but he declines to say more than that he believes the fellow is one of the murderers. Maroney is still practically in the lic. employ of the old triangle.
Of McDonald very little is known, except that he is one of Maroney's dupes and chief lieutenant. As he was absent from New York while Maroney was, it is supposed that he, too, was in Chicago, Late last night it was ascertained that Maroney is supposed to be the man "Simmons" who rented the top floor at 112 Clark street, The police are in possession of strong circumstantial evidence connecting Maroney with this, the first step of the conspiracy. THE GERMANS ON SULLIVAN.

The Germans of the city have made a very decided stand in the Cronin case. The Staats Zeitung, taking up the thread of Alexander Sullivan's life, has this to say of an incident in his career: After the return of Alexander Sullivan to Chicago from New Mexico, where he had filled the office of territorial secretary about ten years ago, an incident occurred which is described in detail in the Staats Zeitung of this city.

Soon after his return, that paper says, the United States government made an investiga-tion. It was found that between $8,000 and $10,000 had been left unaccounted for by Sullivan on leaving his office. As a result of this discovery an official order was issued from Washington to cause the arrest of Alexander Sullivan on the charge of embezzlement unless the deficit were speedily made good. Sullivan succeeded in preventing his arrest for the time being, having prevailed upon two friends to give provisional bail for him.

About this time it was, too, that Sullivan succeeded in inducing Patrick Egan, the treasurer of the Irish national league, to furnish him with $100,000 for the alleged purpose of agitation in America. Right on top of this he managed to straighten up his account with the Federal government, paying the entire sum he had been found to be short. This, says the paper, occasions the strong suspicion that he used a part at least of the Egan fund for the purpose of making up the deficit. A HABEAS CORPUS FOR SULLIVAN.

A committee of Alex, Sullivan's friends met after the arrest and requested James O'Connel to retain ex-State Senator J. W. Duncan as Sullivan's attorney. Mr. Duncan and his partner, ex-Judge Gilbert, went immediately to the jail and had a consultation with the prisoner. They aunounced that they would apply for a habeas corpus before Judge Tulley this morning, and expressed their confidence that he would be released forthwith. SULLIVAN'S NIGHT IN JAIL.

THE CHAIN AGAINST MARONEY.

> A very strong chain of circumstantial evidence has been wound about John J. Maroney, one of the men now under arrest in New York on suspicion of being connected with the murder of Cronin. The story as given by the authorities is as follows: Photographs were procured of Maroney and McDonald, the other man arrested at the same time in New York. These were mixed with a number of others, and shown first to Salesman Hatfield, of Revell & Co., who sold the furniture subsequently found in the Carlson cottage in Lake View, in which Dr. Cronin was murdered. Mr. Hatfield, without hesitation, picked out Maroney's portrait as that of the man to whom he sold the furniture.

The pictures were then mixed up and shown to Mr. Throckmorton, the real estate agent who rented the rooms on Clark street, opposite Dr. Cronin's office, to which the furniture was first carted from Revell's. Mr. Throckmorton picked out the picture of Maroney as the man to whom he rented the rooms. Once more the pictures were shuffled and this time they were shown to Expressman Martenson, who carted the furniture from the Clark-street rooms to the Carlson cottage in Lake View where Dr. Cronin was murdered. The result was the same, Maroney's picture was again selected, this time as the man who had hired the furniture moved. Neither of these persons knew what had been done by the other. In each of these cases the man gave his name as J. B. Simmons. It now remains to be seen whether or not the Carlsons will recognize him as one of the alleged brothers named Williams who rented the cottage.

MARONEY AND McDONALD.

The Former Asserts He is Entirely Innocent of the Crime.

New York, June 12 .- John J. Maroney and who were arrested here yesterday by Inspector | tractors from the eastern end of the state have Byrnes at the request of the Chicago authorities, will be again taken to the Tombs police court at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose merely of being further remanded until the arrival of the Chicago officers with the necessary papers in the case.

Mr. Roe, a well-known nationalist of this city, called at the central office last night and was permitted to hold a short conversation with McDonald. This morning a well-dressed man, who refused to give his name, called upon the inspector to inquire after the prisoners. Maroney, it appears, has expressed his willingness to go to Chicago and face the charge of murder which he believes has been preferred against him, asserting in the most positive language that he is ENTIRELY INNOCENT OF THE CRIME.

Maroney uses every endeavor to create the impression that he knows more about the murder press are positively refused an interview with the prisoners. Inspector Byrnes holds that inasmuch as the prisoners are merely in his custody awaiting the arrival of the Chicago officers, he has no power to grant any such privilege; even if he had, the inspector says it would would be a bad breach of courtesy, to say the least, to permit newspaper men to talk with the accused before the officers who are on their way from Chicago have had an opportunity of speaking with the men. The mysterious man who was taken to police headquarters last night, and who was supposed to be in some way connected with Maroney and McDonald, turns out to be a man who was ar-rested on the supposition that he had comnitted a robbery.

THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE. lts Meeting in New York to Select a Chairman.

New York, June 12 .- The corridors of the Fifth-avenue hotel were alive with democratic politicians this morning, eager either for participation in the meeting of the national democratic committee or for prognostication as to its results. THE GRAND JURY TO TAKE THE CASE.

A special grand jury to deal with the Cronin case was empaneled this morning in Judge Shepard's court. In addressing the jury Judge Shepard said that he expected a full, exhaustive, impartial investigation of the mursupplication of the mursupplication of the superior solidity and finish of English engineering, and the extreme backwardness in the speed of elevators and in the adoption of electric light, but England is better than America in keeping the skyline clear of overhead wires.

under military rule. At 7 o'clock this morning Gen, Hastings took charge, and soldiers were placed on guard duty at all the commissary stations and morgues. A slight rain has been falling all the morning, and the city presents a most dismal appearance. Everything is turmoil and confusion, and little or no work is being done. For the first time since the work has commenced the men seemed fagged out and are not in a hurry to get to work. However, all the men at the morgues and the relief committees are still hard at work. The sufferers were at the commissary stations as early as usual this morning, and stood around in the rain for several hours before they were served. They have the same distressed look that they have had ever since the flood, and es days roll on they do not seem to liven up any. For the first time since the calamity the people are commencing to talk of their financial losses, and this seems to worry them as much as anything else, and to say that a vast number of the former merchants are disheartened is putting it mildly. On all sides you will hear these merchants exclaim: "It is no use; we will never recover from this, we have lost everything." The Pittsburg wholesale merchants who are here are trying to comfort them and are offering all the old merchants some very elegant inducements to start up again. A circular bas been received by these men from several Pittsburg merchants offering them all the credit they want. All the laborers employed by Booth & Flynn and all the volunteer and other workmen were paid off at the club house this morning by the finance committee. Over four thousand men surrounded the place, and it was with constderable difficulty that they were paid. A number of them forgot their numbers and it caused no end of trouble. The pay-roll altogether amounted to about $90,000.

To-day we will do little or nothing. This is of course on account of the changing of the rule and the wet weather. By to-morrow we will be at work in earnest and at least 3,000 men will be employed. One thousand workmen leave New York this afternoon and at least 500 will be sent from Pittsburg. I have given the employment of these men into the hands of four contractors and will hold them responsible. I have no idea how long it will take to clean up the place, but I am afraid there will be very little of the governor's million after the work is done." "Will you clean out the cellars of the build-

A FREEZE-OUT SCHEME STOPPED. Hon. Wm. Fline, of Pittsburg, arrived here last night just in time to stop a scheme which was on foot to freeze out all the Pennsylvania contractors. Governor Beaver wanted one man to take charge of all the work and sent him to look into the matter. In the meantime Mr. Flinn was in Pittsburg arranging for about 1,500 men, and had them engaged when he re-ceived a telegram from Gen. Hastings telling him not to hire any more men and to come to Johnstown immediately. He accordingly arrived late last night and had a consultation with Gen. Hastings. The general informed the Pittsburg contractor that Gov. Beaver had a man to take charge of the work. Flinn inquired if the contractor had any men here with him and was informed that he had not. "Well," said Flinn, "let him go on with his work. I will have nothing to do with the mat-ter. I thought I was to be consulted in this matter and have already hired 1,500 men, but I will give them orders to remain where they are and let this man go ahead.
